Lecture is well organised and is passionate about the module.

What improvements can you suggest for the delivery of the contact sessions?

NONE!

What did you like most about the contact sessions?

The way he makes us comfortable in class, to answer and ask questions.

What did you NOT like about the contact sessions?

There's nothing negative about the session.

Please write any comments or recommendations that you would like to make about the module or the lecture that are not covered above, in the box below:

-Even though we were not his initial babies, he welcomed us with the same love and care that he gives/shares with pmec students.
- We are not happy about the fact that he could not assess us during our SBL (SO SAD IF YOU ASK ME @)
- Everything is perfect

Thank you for your co-operation

What did you like about this module?

Being given space to grow in our teaching - micro teaching, lesson plans, etc.
--

What did you NOT like about this module?

I did not like that we didn't cover any content of EMS as a subject.

Did the module meet the expectations that you had?

YES/NO

Please comment on your response:

NO. I expected to be better equipped to teach EMS.
This module helps us to teach, but not specifically for
EMS. We didn't cover or recap on any content of EMS as a subject.

They were entertaining, informing and engaging.

What did you NOT like about the contact sessions?

None.

Please write any comments or recommendations that you would like to make about the module or the lecture that are not covered above, in the box below:

The module itself should be organized differently.
We shouldn't learn about reflections that we need to do for our lessons we taught a month after our SBL block. This makes it very confusing as we were not aware before SBL of what was needed/expected from us.

Comments on any of the above?

The lecturer always arrives early in class and reports whenever there are some changes. He is a responsible, committed and consistent lecturer which we are fortunate to have and is extremely passionate about his work & knows how to prepare learners to become good teachers.

What improvements can you suggest for the delivery of the contact sessions?

None, everything is more than perfect on my side and I think any improvements above this will surely create intellectual and generous teachers in future.

What did you like most about the contact sessions?

The Optimistic energy, passion, caring and responsible attitude that the lecturer have shown is great and has added value in my well being.

What did you NOT like about the contact sessions?

None, the lecturer continue to remain my best mentor in the entire University.

Please write any comments or recommendations that you would like to make about the module or the lecture that are not covered above, in the box below:

I think Dr Ismail should be involved in Modules that involve all PGCE students, he can play a vital role in the terms of boosting passion and love for teaching to those who still have doubts about themselves.

What did you NOT like about the contact sessions?

Disclosure of marks. (:) although not in competition.

Please write any comments or recommendations that you would like to make about the module or the lecture that are not covered above, in the box below:

→ With regards to presentation. Make sure in future students all do presentations either before or after first SBL Block, because some students are disadvantage with gaining confidence.

→ Lecturer must decide the sequence of learner (who) they will present, it's unfair that some must present in lecturer slot and others choose when they want.

This course have added a lot of value in my intellectual capacity especially by enabling me with the skills of imparting what I know to others clearly and precisely.

What did you like about this module?

The energy and passion that our lecturer has shown from the onset have created a positive and conducive environment for learning. The commitment & consistency is so amazing.

What did you NOT like about this module?

Students sometimes grouped each other in terms or according to their race and that sometimes create a tense environment for learning.

Did the module meet the expectations that you had?

YES/NO

Please comment on your response:

Yes, it has provided more than I expected and the lecturer have done a great job in terms of moulding us in the process of becoming teachers. The presentation part is the one have built myself confidence and made me to believe in myself.

The lecturer always early in class and is very committed in his work, such that as his students has become one step ahead of our peers because of his commitment and love of teaching. He is very a responsible and passionate person about teaching.

What improvements can you suggest for the delivery of the contact sessions?

I think presentation should be done more often than paper work as much as they are tense but they are the one ^{that} prepares us to be great teachers with confidence.

What did you like most about the contact sessions?

Is that the lecturer is the Responsible and caring person who knows the Aims and Objectives of this Modules and tries by all means to keep everyone alive in class.

What did you NOT like about the contact sessions?

The tension that division among us creates in the classroom.
